Playing the game that will eventually land them at the top of the heap for the second half of the season, the Colts arose to the occasion and trounced the Hanover Tigers two games in the regular Saturday pastime at the Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, taking the opener by the score of 3 to 1 and the nightcap, 4 to 0.

Sterling pitching, scintillating fielding and all-around aggressiveness, featured the sport, and brought the locals through the week without the loss of a game.

Manager Walter Schaefer never pitched better ball in their lives, and it was mainly through their almost perfect control that the contests went to the Colts.

The Richmonders were slightly off color in their defensive work in the opening game, two of their four bunts counting for the lone run scored by the juncos. In the nightcap, the locals went through the game without a misplay of any kind to mar their work.

Johnson and Tolson Twirl

Manager Walter Schaefer assigned Johnson and Tolson to mound duty, and the delivery of both "strong arm" artists appealed to the Richmonders, and they made the best of their offerings, driving the juncos to cover after two and two-thirds innings, and hammering 7 to 1 at opponents at once.

Win Clark had charge of the entire series last closed, and worked alone, with the result that four better handled than he have never been in the city, very few objections being registered by players on either team.

Richmond won the opening game, after Roanoke had been retired in order, when Berger faced a triple to deep center, and the runner had been retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the second game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the third game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the fourth game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the fifth game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the sixth game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the seventh game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the eighth game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the ninth game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

Richmond won the tenth game, after Gray had retired on an easy pop to Pop Snyder, strayed to right, scoring Berger. Gray hit a line fly, which was taken care of by Snyder, and the runner to center, and Snyder, who tried to score, was out on a perfect relay, Cook to Johnson at first base.

NEW YORK, August 15.—Forward, steadily forward, came the Bostonians. Again the Braves defeated the Giants with a lopsided doubling in the batting. They won by the score of 2 to 0. Nevertheless, the game was a remarkable one, and the Giants lacked not in merit for up to the tenth inning neither team had scored a run.

Tyler and Mathewson were the gallant defenders. However, one of the other was to win, and Boston accomplished it in the tenth. South angled to left, Mann sacrificed and died, sending Smith to second. Then Gowdy wrought his decisive work by hammering a triple over Bescher's head, scoring Smith.

A wild pitch cleared the way for Gowdy.

BACK IN BIG WAGON

Two American League players unceremoniously "freed" by the Yankees, brought back and then more than made good. Both were playing with the Yankees last year. Crec was sold to the Baltimore Orioles for $2,000. Daniels, however, saw fit to buy his way back for $5,000, leaving a nice little bit of change in the hands of the Baltimore International, but Baltimore said him back.

KALAMAZOO, August 15.—The Grand Circuit meeting at Recreation Park came to an end this afternoon with a program of five races. The feature was the 2:07 pace, in which the Chicago mare, Alcy, was favorite, but a surprise was sprung by the Kansas nacer, John D., who landed the race in three straight heats. In the third heat he acted badly at the score and was sent off last, but paced around the field, and won in 2:01 3/4, the fastest time of the race.

DAVIS TENNIS TROPHY GOES TO AUSTRALIA

After Holding Cup for One Year, Americans Fail to Defend Title Successfully.

McLOUGHLIN PROVEN THE STAR

By Winning His Matches From Brookings and Wilding, the Californian Proves His Title to King of the Courts.

NEW YORK, August 15.—The Davis cup is gone. After the brief stay here of one year in its native home, it was captured by the Australasians to-day, and for some indefinite period in the future it will rest on the opposite side of the earth. The men to successfully lay siege to the trophy, which carries with it the world's lawn tennis international championship, are Norman E. Brookes and Anthony F. Wilding, rated heretofore as the two greatest exponents of racket work in the world.

THEY WON THE CONTEST BY THREE MATCHES TO TWO, OR BY ONE MATCH, OR A MARGIN WHICH, AFTER ALL, WAS NOT A VERY BAD BEATING.

THE TWO MATCHES CHALKED UP TO THE CREDIT OF THE UNITED STATES WERE WON BY MAURICE E. McLOUGHLIN OF SAN FRANCISCO, WHEN HE TROUNCED BROOKES AND WILDING, SO THAT, EVEN THOUGH AUSTRALASIA CARRIES THE CUP, ITS GREAT PLAYERS HAVE ANYWAY STRUGGLED TO THE FINISH, AND THERE IS A CONSOLATION THAT AMERICA HAS NOW IN McLOUGHLIN THE PREMIER PLAYER OF THE WHOLE WORLD.

McLOUGHLIN DID NOT KALIN THIS TOP RUNG OF TENNIS FAVOR ANY NARROW STRUGGLE OR DUKE. HE TOOK THE MEASURE OF BROOKES IN STRAIGHT SETS AND OF WILDING BY THREE SETS TO ONE.

AS BROOKES AND WILDING WALKED OUT ON THE COURT THEY WERE GIVEN A GREAT RECEPTION, AND ONLY VERY LITTLE WARMING PRACTICE WAS INDULGED IN. BROOKES BEGAN SERVING WITH HIS BACK TO THE COURT, AND IN QUICK ORDER HAD TO SET AT 3 TO LOVE ON GAME ALL, THIS TIME WILLIAMS ONLY SCORING ONE GAME.

ON THE FOURTH GAME WILLIAMS SETTLED TO HIS WORK, AND AFTER DEUCE FOUR TIMES WON THE GAME.

THAT WAS THE LAST OF HIM IN THAT SET, FOR BROOKES "leathered" out the next three games, having it all his own way. He drew the first blood rather easily, and the spectators heaved sighs for the fate of the cup. In the second set, Brookes had it 4 to love on games in a few minutes. Williams managed to get two games out of the set, and one of them was a love one on his own service.

WILLIAMS PUT THE BALL ROLLING IN THE THIRD SET, AND WON THE FIRST GAME, AND THEN AS REGULARLY AS CLOCK WORK EACH PLAYER WON ON HIS SERVICE UNTIL THE SCORE WAS 8 TO 7 IN FAVOR OF BROOKES, AND WORKING AGAINST WILLIAMS'S SERVICE ALL BROOKES HAD THE SCORE 8 TO 7. IN HIS FAVOR, HE WAS 30 TO LOVE WORKING. WILLIAMS "bounced him" and by a couple passing shots pulled the game to 30 all, and he ran out and level with the Australasian to 8 all.

THE AMERICAN HAD WORKED THROUGH BROOKES, AND THE CHALLENGING COULD BE HEARD MILES AWAY. WILLIAMS WON HIS OWN SERVICE, AND IN A FRIZZY OF THE PLUSE WENT THROUGH BROOKES'S WINNING GAME, AND HE CAPTURED THE SET AT 10 TO 3. THE FOURTH AND DECIDING SET WAS ONE-SIDED IN FAVOR OF BROOKES. HE GAINED AN EARLY LEAD, AND ALWAYS HELD WILLIAMS SAFE.

ALTHOUGH THE CROWD WAS WELL AWARE THAT THE CUP WAS BOOKED FOR AUSTRALIA, NOT A SEAT WAS LEFT IN THE McLOUGHLIN WILDLING MATCH, AND IT HAD NO BEARING ON THE RESULT, BUT THE REPUTATION OF BOTH PLAYERS WAS AT STAKE, AND THAT IS JUST WHAT THEY PLAYED FOR.

THE MATCH WENT TO FOUR SETS, AND THE VICTORY REVERTED TO McLOUGHLIN BY THE SCORE OF 6-2, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2.

THE AMERICAN WAS AS SOLID AS THE NEW ZEALANDER'S GROUND STROKES, WHILE HIS GREAT SERVICE AND STRONG WILDLING PUT HIS BEST LEG FORWARD IN THE THIRD SET, WHICH HE WON. McLOUGHLIN CAME BACK WITH A DASH IN THE FOURTH, BUT HE SET WITHOUT GIVING THE NEW ZEALANDER A CHANCE AT THE NET OR ELSEWHERE.

MANY NOVEL FEATURES FOR ROTARIAN DAY

Visitors to Ball Ground Urged to Return Coupons—May Win Bag of Flour or Sugar.

To-morrow will be Children's Day at the Broad Street Park, and Thursday will be Rotary Day—and what a day it will be. Helene Busch's Goobers will be the diamond attraction against Ray Ryan's Gumbies, and the Rotary Club will have full charge of the performance. This means that there will be many amusing stunts pulled off during the afternoon, including a greasy pig race, in which the ball players will try to capture the greased one.

More than $200 in prizes will be given away during Thursday afternoon. All persons paying admission are notified to return the coupons, because each coupon will entitle the holder to a prize which may be worth a sack of flour (on which the price is constantly soaring) or a neatly wrapped box of sugar, which is also going skyward in value.

The Rotarian Club is composed of William E. Morton, John P. Fox, Nathan Simon, G. C. Dula and H. H. Hester, and the committee has outlined a rare bit of fun for Thursday's afternoon. Alvin Smith, Nathan Simon, Tom Palmer, Walker Cottrell, Thomas B. McAdams, Moses Hofheimer and others of the executive Rotary Club will appear in special uniforms on the field, and induce the thirsty people to buy red lemonade and other wet stuff, while others of the party will endeavor to make everybody in the grandstand thirsty by selling them lemonade and other things that make people want liquid.

It is expected that a large crowd will come over from Petersburg to cheer for Helene and her bunch of ball players, and that the Rotarian will be one of the afternoon's features.

Whether you are a Rotarian or not, you are urged to attend the ball game Thursday. The game will be worth the money, and the Rotarian fan will be an added star.
